NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTY-NINE

FORGE

Tom,

To a nice and witty lady in the seventh grade. Remember all the times we've tried to get each other in trouble. Good Luck in everything you do and keep trying like me to ~~make~~ the honor roll again. May God Bless and Keep You Safe.

Remember me as one of your friends in the years to come and go.

Our grains of sand are quickly falling through the hour glass to join the grains of sand from the past.

As this year draws to a close, the memories we have acquired throughout our high school days are reflected by pictures of the events. Feelings are never felt by others as they are by you. In any case, let us not forget the most important memories of the years, Memories of the really true friendships made and the thoughtfulness of the people who went out of their way for you that you may never really have appreciated. These should rank first among your memories. What memories? the spirited athletic events, the enjoyment of the class plays and the operettas, the activities of the various organizations, the beautiful Homecoming festivities and the social events: Inter-Club and Junior-Senior Proms, the Sweetheart Ball, the Sadie Hawkins Dance, the Cotton Hop, the dances after the football and basketball games.

We would like to wish all our fellow graduates the best of luck in any field they choose to follow. To the underclassmen, we enjoyed our years at Follansbee High; may you enjoy yours at the Brooke High School.

Color reflects youthful feelings and ideas.

This year has been a veritable kaleidoscope of color. What would a game be without the sparkling silver and blue uniforms of the band augmenting the skills of the musicians, or the spirited cheerleaders, with their bright blue and white uniforms, shouting encouragement to our players? And the white flash of a Follansbee football player sprinting for a touchdown is a scene hard to forget!

By far, the most colorful event of the year is Homecoming. The vibrant colors of the parade—decorated cars and floats—the crowning of our queen in pregame ceremonies—a tradition which brings a spectrum of color to the spectator.

We present to you some of our most outstanding events to prove: it was a colorful year.

In Remembrance

Alfred A. Rigner

September 4, 1923—January 12, 1969

We dedicate this final edition of the Forge to one who freely gave his time and his outstanding musical ability to us. From among his many achievements, the annual operettas will particularly be remembered.

A long time friend and teacher, we miss him.

"Music, when soft voices die, vibrates in the memory."

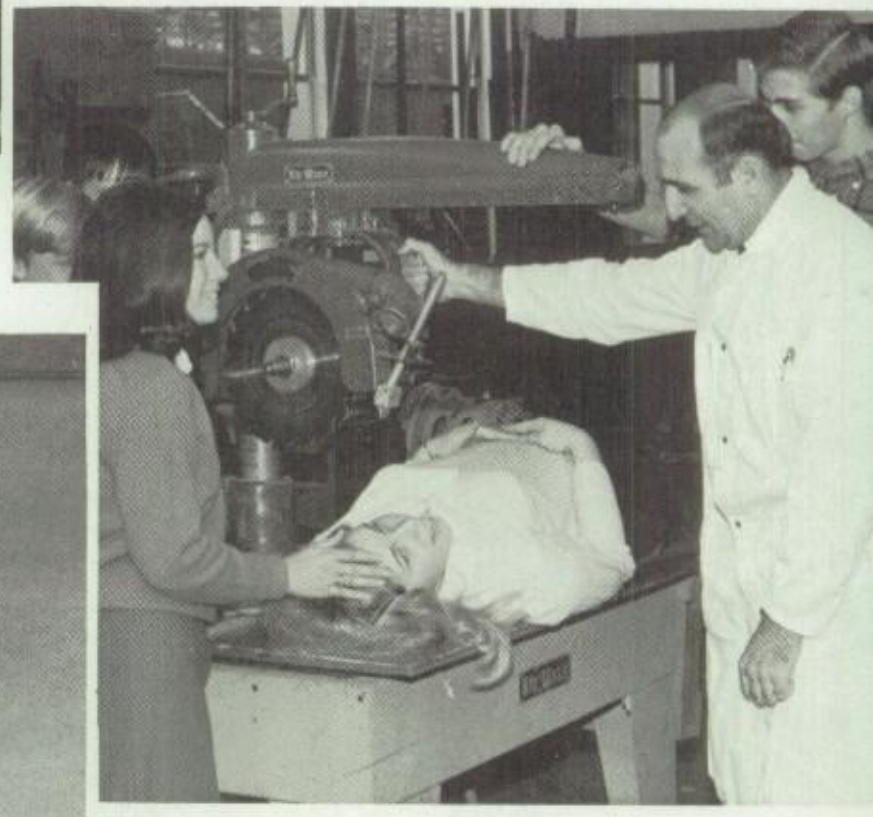
And next year I'm going to Hollywood.

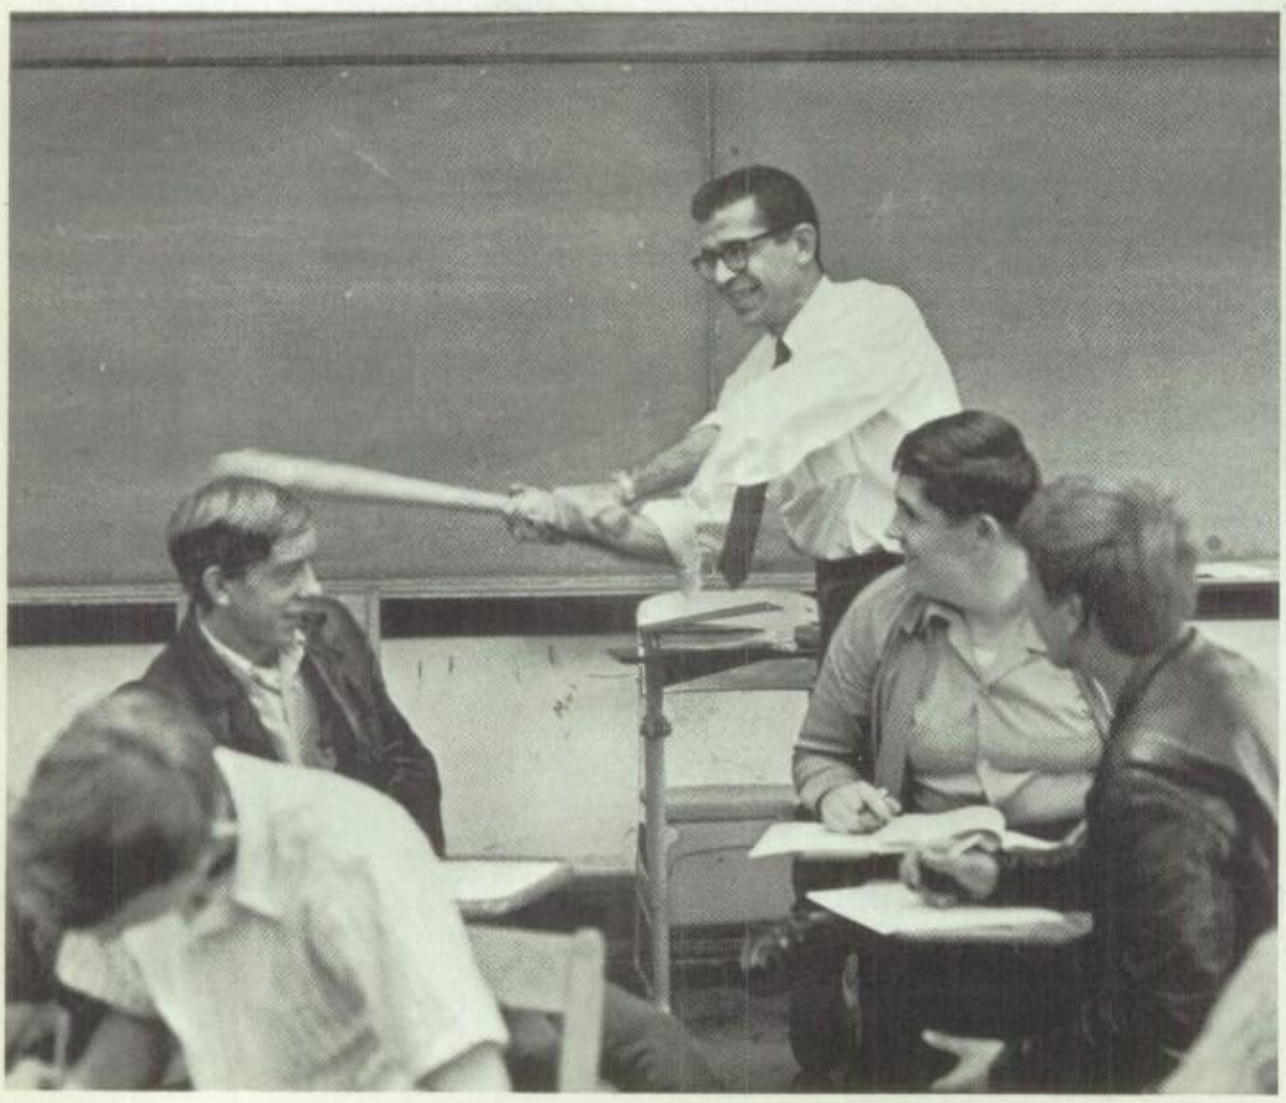
Sorry dear, I've got a date with the new school.

At least I have a chance with a horse. I do the driving.

Sorry boys! Nothing good lasts too long.



Should we do it now and get it over with?



Would you believe teacher brutality?

Color, beauty, and tension highlighted the annual Homecoming festivities: A colorful parade in downtown Follansbee and five lovely girls awaiting the crowning of Homecoming Queen '68. Miss Lynnette Koper was presented a trophy by Booster Club president, John Casale. Her court included Gaynel Ciccolella, Antoinette Julio, Kathy Lafferty, and Darcy McLain. The Blue Wave team stunned the OVAC leaders, Triadelphia High School, 15-0 before an enthusiastic crowd. The sunny, blue-sky day could not have been more beautiful.

At the Field House, a dance was held in honor of the queen and her court while the Alumni danced at St. Francis Centre.

A particularly sad event for those who realized Follansbee High held its last Homecoming Day. Courts were first introduced in the year of our birth 1951—and ends this year of our graduation, 1969. With us, it began, and with us it ends.

Voice of Democracy

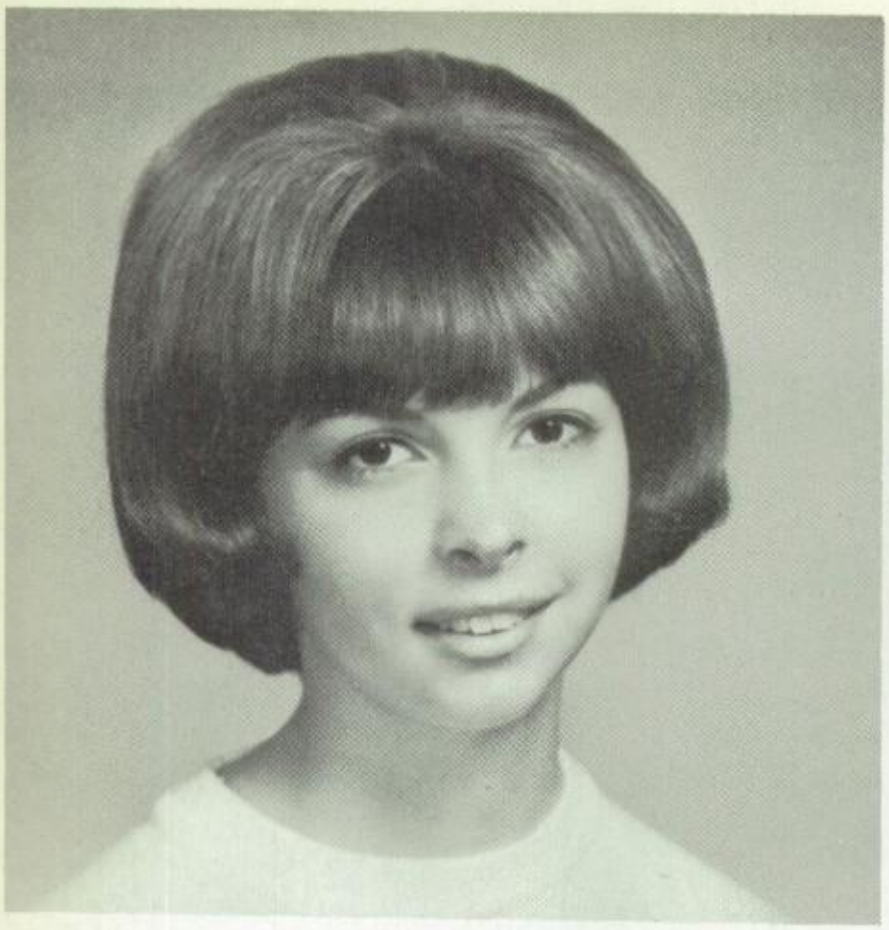
"Freedom's Challenge" was the subject for the talks.

Miss Dorothy Kotroumanis, speech instructor, was the advisor to both groups.

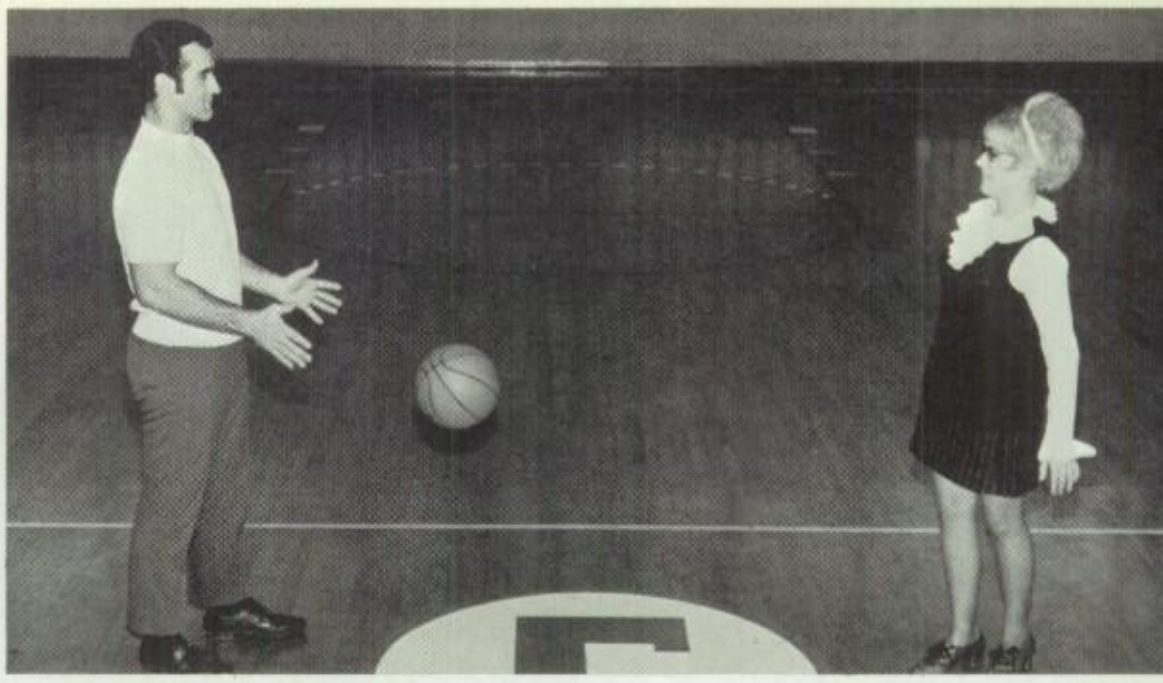
Junior Town Meeting

"Resolved: That a Student Board Should Discipline Violators of School Law"

Junior Town Meeting featured a debate between Follansbee and Warren Consolidated, November 20, 1968. Finalists include Dave Simpson, Jim Lyle, Linda Davidson, Sherilyn Grandolph, Miss Dorothy Kotroumanis (sponsor), Marlene Simmons, Barbara Kiggans, Deborah Wright, Ann Bates. Sherilyn Grandolph and Jim Lyle were selected as winners with Linda Davidson and Deborah Wright alternates. Linda and Jim were on the W.W.V.A. radio broadcast.



Barbara Marosi, Follansbee's Homemaker of the year was awarded the Betty Crocker Trophy and charm in a presentation by Mr. H. S. Bodley, principal, and Mrs. Winifred McCoy, advisor.



Ron Sebeck and Gaynel Ciccolella were selected Mr. and Miss School Spirit from a slate of candidates presented to the faculty by the Varsity Cheerleaders.

In a mock crowning at the Field House, Karol Bowen (left) and Joyce Thompson (right) crowned Larry Hood and Michelle Taylor as Mr. and Miss Santa Claus. Five couples were nominated by the journalism class with seniors balloting for the final selection. The couple reigned at the Inter-Club Prom, December 20, 1968.

Tony Janeshek and Mr. Gary Ryan, chemistry teacher, attended a science program at Bell Telephone Laboratories in Murry Hill, New Jersey.

FOLLANSBEE QUIZ KIDS

Follansbee High School again participated in the "High School Quiz" sponsored by WSTV-TV of Steubenville, Ohio. Those representing Follansbee were Pat Mihalik, Roberta Clevenger (alternate), Steve Donahoe, Tony Janeshek, Debbie Niday (alternate) and Greg Haines. Follansbee lost to a panel of students from Wintersville High School.

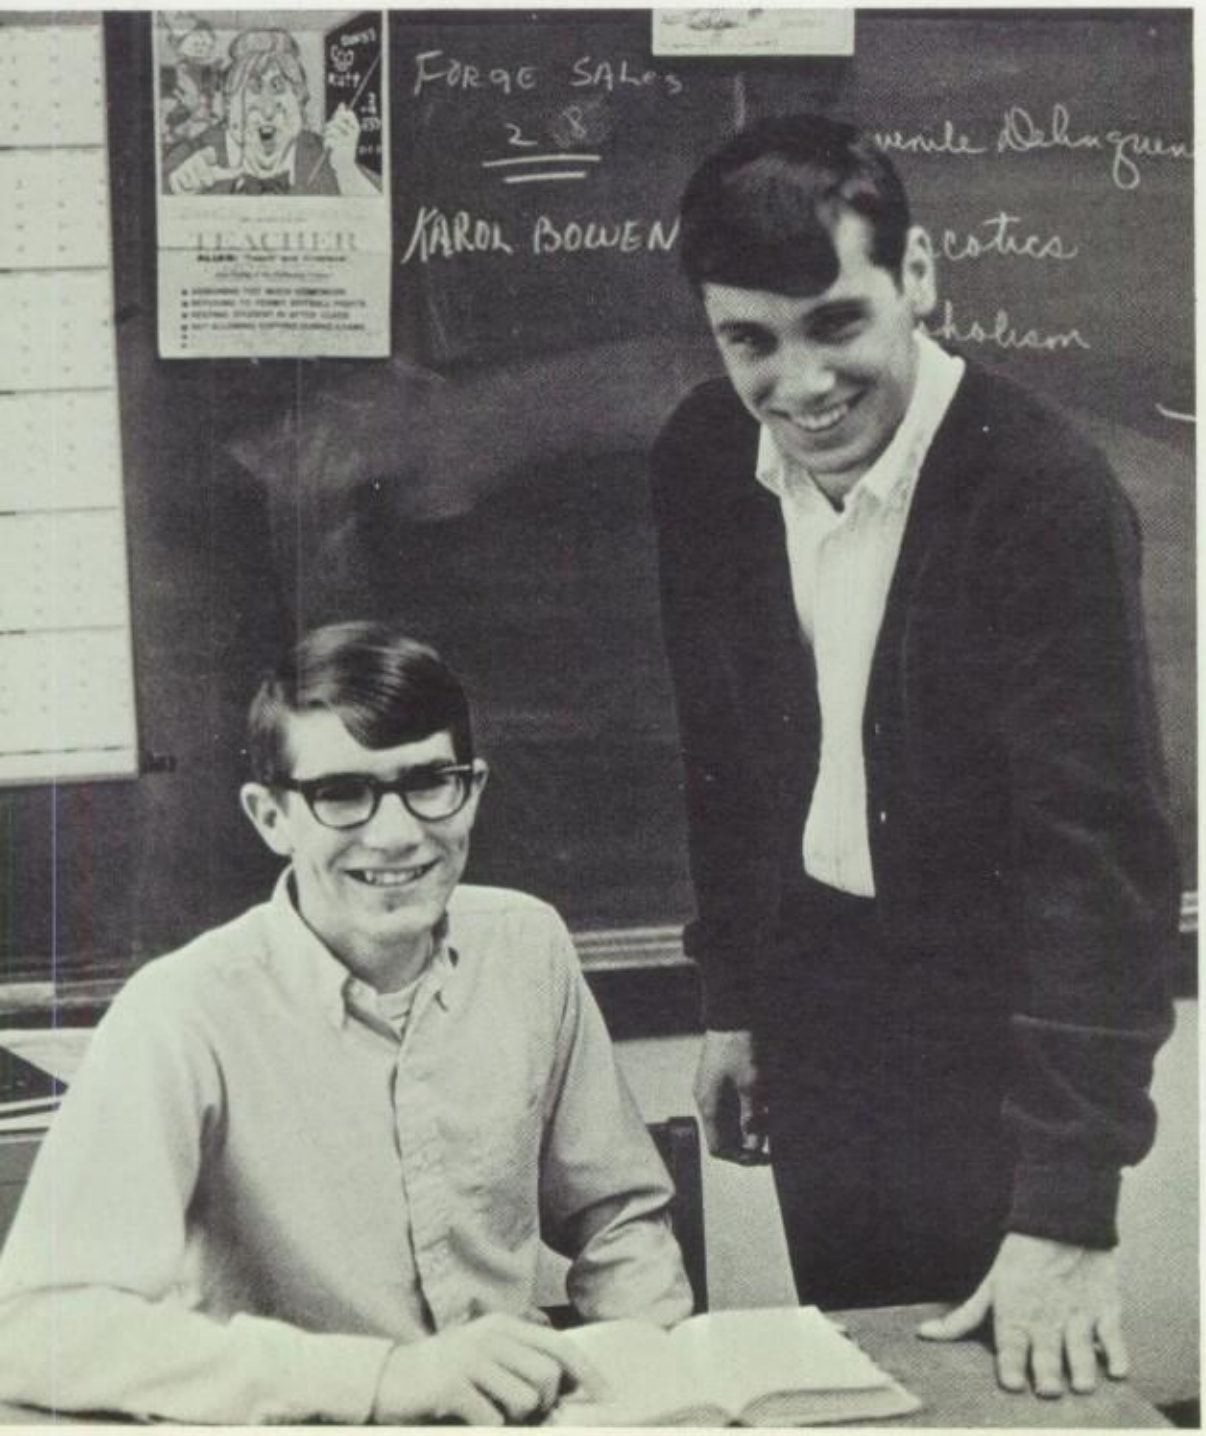
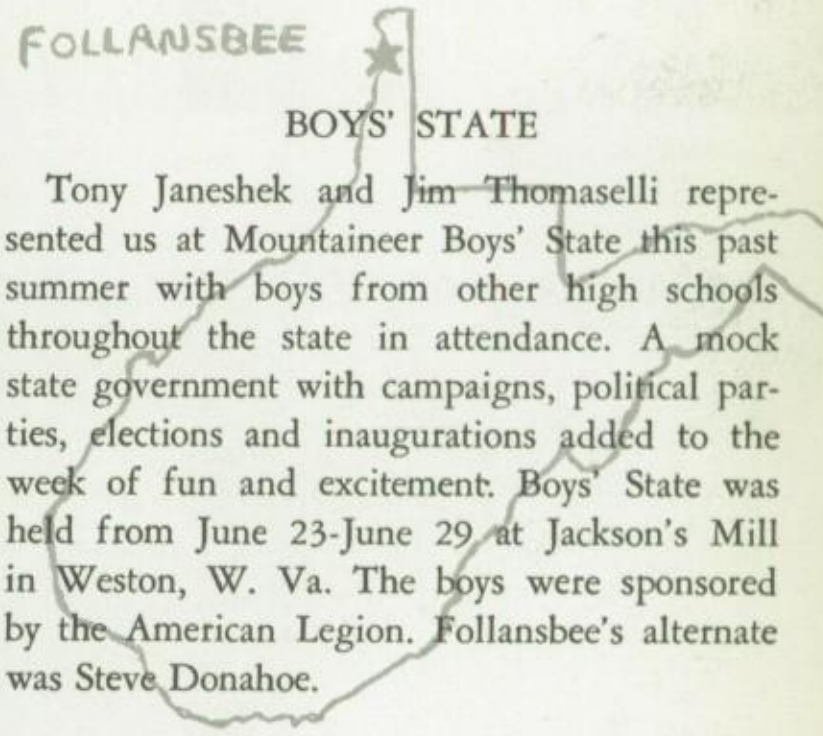
GIRLS' STATE

Antoinette Julio, sponsored by the American Legion, took the oath as State Treasurer at the Annual Rhododendron Girls' State held at Jackson's Mill. Last year Evelyn Vitarelli of Follansbee was elected at State Treasurer. Other representatives were: Sharon Rees, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club and Cathy Wuyak, sponsored by the Disabled American Veterans of Weirton.

"Nothing was ever achieved without enthusiasm." – Emerson





BOYS' STATE

Tony Janeshek and Jim Thomaselli represented us at Mountaineer Boys' State this past summer with boys from other high schools throughout the state in attendance. A mock state government with campaigns, political parties, elections and inaugurations added to the week of fun and excitement. Boys' State was held from June 23-June 29 at Jackson's Mill in Weston, W. Va. The boys were sponsored by the American Legion. Follansbee's alternate was Steve Donahoe.

Debi Larkey, president of the Future Homemakers of America and State Vice-President of Public Relations attended the National F.H.A. Convention in Miami, Florida from July 4-14, 1968. Mrs. Winifred McCoy is the local chapter advisor.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

On October 25-27, 1968, Tony Janeshek and Steve Donahoe attended the Constitutional Convention, in Charleston. Mr. James Smith, World History Teacher, accompanied them. Mrs. Emaline Tucci, Chairman of the Selection Committee, named Steve and Tony, who were sponsored by the Association of Classroom Teachers.

Toni Julio and Ron Sebeck were selected as the Elk's Leadership winners from Brooke County and therefore entered in district and state competition. Toni was selected as the state winner in February. At press time word had not been received on the national competition. Toni is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Julio of 312 Marquette Ave., Follansbee. Mr. Liberatore A. Ferrante served as the faculty advisor for the competition.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK AND VETERAN'S DAY

Short speeches on the public address system during American Education Week and a program for Veteran's Day were presented by these pictured students. Miss Dorothy Kotroumanis, speech instructor, and Mr. Richard J. Wojcik, Journalism instructor, selected the students.

According to records, the first Blue Wave football team was formed in 1914 with scarcely enough players to fill the positions. The first game was played against Steubenville Big Red's second team, in O & P League Park across No. 2 highway from Park View Drive-In. Score: Big Red 27, F.H.S. 17.

We joined the Ohio Valley Athletic Association with Headquarters in Wheeling. Home grounds were on Mark Ave. where the high school is now located. Follansbee's First victory came against Linsly 7-6.

"Thomaselli with the ball, picks up a block, he's in! touch down! Blue Wave" . . . this was the excited voice of the WEIR announcer as he broadcast the final Weir High-Follansbee football game. But the Blue Wave lost to the hands of the Red Riders in what proved to be an exciting defensive ball game.

The next week the Blue Wave started off strong but were stopped cold in the 2nd half by the Wintersville Golden Warriors.

Then the Blue Wave traveled abroad, only to fall to the Crusaders of Steubenville Catholic Central.

After almost all hopes were lost and the future looked dim for the Blue Wave, they triumphed over Oak Glen by a score of 28-0.

With high hopes of a yet successful season the Blue Wave traveled to Wheeling to play Wheeling Catholic Central. In this game the Blue Wave had to come back to tie 13-13.

The next three ball games the Blue Wave rolled with three easy victories over Martins Ferry, Triadelphia, and Toronto.

The Blue Wave confidently faced possibly the roughest opponent of the season in Wheeling. The Wildcats controlled the game from the first quarter.

The next game was the annual rivalry with Wellsburg to determine where the Silver Saw would finally rest. The Wavers led only briefly as the Orange Knights won to retain the Saw forever.

Wrestling is a relatively new sport, only in its third year at Follansbee. Mr. Ron Mauck is head coach, assisted by Mr. Harold Van Gilder.

Last year was excellent for Follansbee with a state champion in the 95 lb. weight class—Lou Dailey.

Returning lettermen include: Co-captains Lou Dailey, George Illig, Bob Casinelli, and Terry Rea.

This exhibit represented the Northern Panhandle Soil and Water Conservation District at the annual meeting of the State Conservation District Supervisors. This demonstration was constructed to find a new method of purifying strip mine water before it reaches the streams.

An industrious organization, the Conservation Club manned many projects: seeding the front lawn of the school grounds; spreading 12 tons (2400 pounds!) of straw on Site #14 of the Harmon Creek Water Shed Project, under the supervision of the Northern Panhandle Soil Conservation District; Turkey shoots; attendance at the Conservation Camp at Tomlinson Run State Park; Television Stars on "Rural—Urban Scene," W.S.T.V.-T.V.

Johnny Appleseed would also be proud of the members. They planted pine trees on local strip mines.

Officers are President: John Tarr; Vice-President: Don Buffington; Secretary: Donna Sistilli and Treasurer: Meshelle Poole.

Mr. Donald Hendrickson, Biology instructor, is the sponsor.

Campers at Hancock County Youth Conservation Camp held at Tomlinson Run State Park.

These workers spread 12 tons of straw on Site #14 of the Harmon Creek Watershed Project. This was under the supervision of the NPSCD.

The Future Nurses Club is for students interested in health or related careers. It is not intended exclusively for students who wish to become nurses but also for students interested in medical technology, radiology, dental technology, physical therapy, medical records, hospital dietary and other medically oriented fields.

The club started three years ago, initiated a Candystriper program at the Ohio Valley Hospital. They serve year round as regular helpers on assigned floors.

At monthly meetings, medical profession personnel lecture and discuss possible careers for the members.

Each year the club sponsors Christmas favors for patients and employees of the Ohio Valley Hospital.

Concert Choir

Music, one of the oldest and most important of man's arts, is appreciated because it communicates something in which we find satisfaction.

Mr. Alfred Rigner, choral director, personally selected the Concert Choir through tryouts. Students are grouped according to voice range, color, and the quality they give to their parts.

The Concert Choir participated in the Christmas and Easter Assemblies among other special programs.

In the spring the Choral department produced an operetta for the community under the vocal direction of Mr. Alfred Rigner and the dramatic direction of Mr. Richard J. Wojcik, Journalism Instructor. Performances have included "Annie Get Your Gun," "The Boyfriend," and "Where's Charley?"

The Blue Wave Marching Band, 142 students, and the Concert Band, 96, includes freshman, sophomore, junior and senior students. Both groups have attained high state ratings.

William S. Woodhouse organized the band in 1928, serving as director until his retirement in 1945. Other directors have included Miss Helen Rhodes, Charles Shackleford, Alfred A. Rigner, Bert DeVaul and Robert DeStefano.

The present marching band began its activities in June to prepare for events such as parades, concerts, and halftime shows for the football season. Two outstanding events of the school year were participation in the Forest Festival in Elkins, W. Va., and the Regional Band Contest in Clarksburg, W. Va.

Follansbee High School's first location was the Jefferson School building in 1911. It originally was named the Cross Creek District High School. With separation of grades, school was then held at the Allegheny school building.

The first graduating class from Follansbee High was in 1912. Ten students graduated: Oliver Williams, Valedictorian, Martha Sanders, Salutatorian, Eleanor Wood, Morris Grosman, H. Lee Mahan, Alfred Krager, Eileen Poteet Kasarda, Ivy Sharpe Hickman and Gertrude Mull. The first faculty: George Hubbs, principal, mathematics and coach; Miss Elizabeth Gist, History, English and Botany; A. F. Young, Superintendent, Latin and Civil Government; 40 students attended 45 minute classes.

In 1916 the school with a state approved curriculum became a regular four year high school, 96 students, 9 faculty members. An athletic program was developed. School events were held on Friday and Saturday evenings.

An official visit from Dr. Barbe of West Virginia University with state high school inspectors disclosed a need for more laboratory equipment and library books. With these acquisitions and an increase in enrollment, a new building was needed. A field north of Mark Avenue was selected as the site. The first graduating class from this school, the present high school, was in 1924; the last, this Class of '69.

The passage of the Child Labor Law in 1916 forced many students out of profitable jobs in the steel mills—eight hours a day for five dollars was mighty good!!! Athletics, always a part of school life, aids in keeping students in school. Many programs were introduced:

Baseball: Introduced early but lack of facilities and players held it back from quick development.

Track and Cross Country: Team visited Wheeling and Wellsburg. Meets were held here.

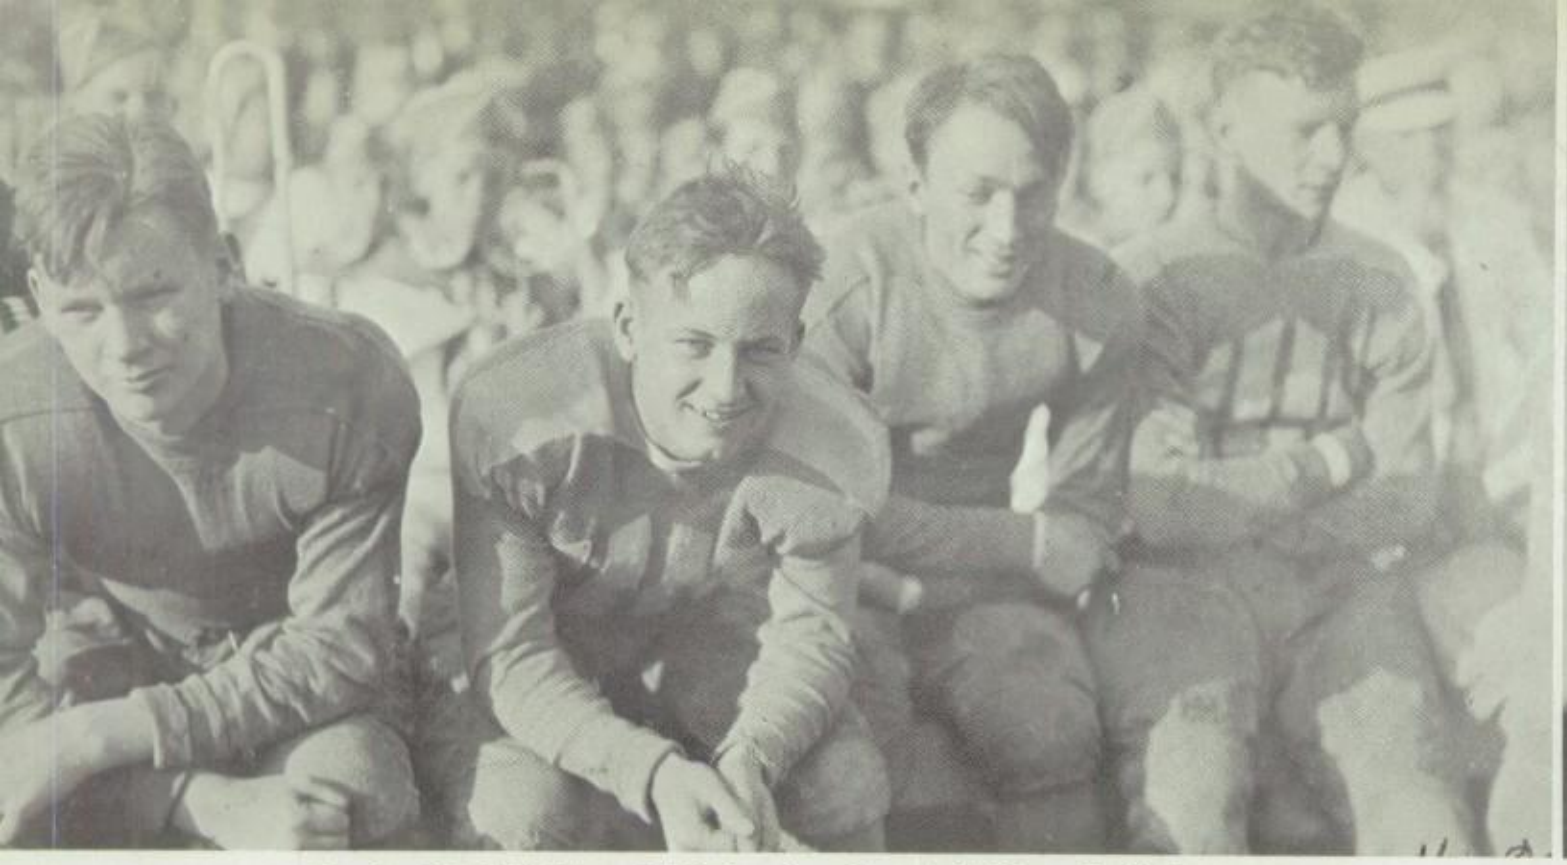
Football: Organized in 1914. One of the first games was played in the O. and P. League Park opposite the present Drive-In Theater. James Stephens, a teacher, was referee. Big Red 27, F.H.S. 17. Members of the first football team: Russell Cox, captain, Dick Stephens, Harry McGraw, Baxter Dungan, Louis Diller, Clarence Goettling, Dana Carey, Ray Stocks, Gerald Ledger, Emmett Lantz, Lawrence Claypool, Frank Krager. Follansbee joined the Ohio Valley Athletic Association. Homer S. Bodley, current school principal, is presently the president of this organization.

The first games were played on the present site of the high school then at the old Glass House field at the lower end of the town.

In 1912 the blue and white school colors were selected. After student discussion, senior Stewart Mahan motioned with Mildred Wood seconding, the choice of blue and white. The vote was unanimous. For 57 years those colors have flown over many occasions:

Glenn "Jeep" Davis, Olympic champion, Miss Judy Skunda, Homecoming Queen and Miss West Virginia in the Miss America Pageant (1966), Miss Vicki Moniger, State Forest Festival Queen; Sectional AAA Basketball Champions—1962, 1963, 1964. Regional champions in 1962. In 1954 football state champions. O.V.A.C. champions in 1947 and 1949. In track, regional winners in 1955 and state runnerups in 1964. In wrestling Lou Daily was state champion in the 97 lb. class in 1968. In baseball, 1956, state champions.

These men have served as principals: George Hubbs, Harry Ice, A. F. Young, John Lipton, Mr. Koonz, Mr. Moyer, George Strobel, William Hood and Homer S. Bodley. Bodley is the principal of the Brooke County School.



Gordon Dodrill, Elmer McBaine, Lee Campbell, Harry E. Heckman.
